PROGRAMME

We are delighted to welcome you to the first ever Legal Records Jamboree, hosted by The National Archives and generously supported by The Journal of Legal History/Taylor Francis and British Online Archives.

We have organised this event as a democratic and eclectic exercise in knowledge sharing and dialogue creation – bringing together a variety of different people and groups with an interest in legal records. It is also an assertion of the National Archives’ commitment to being the place, not only where many legal records are held, but also where exciting things happen using those records. We very much hope that you enjoy the day.

Each session will begin with a series of short (5 minute) presentations in the Auditorium on the first floor, during which speakers will introduce their chosen document in a sort of “documentary speed-dating”. We will then move to the MDLRR (Map Room) on the second floor for an opportunity to view and discuss the documents. Presenters will be available during this time to talk about their documents and answer questions.
